Award-winning journalist Mumia Abu-Jamal has been imprisoned since 1981 after being falsely accused and railroaded for the murder of a Philadelphia police officer. Mumia remains on death row despite two federal court rulings vacating his death sentence. His case is still on appeal in the state of Pennsylvania. Come out and hear a political and legal update on the struggle to release this long-time activist who was a founding member of the Black Panther Party in Philadelphia as well as a staunch supporter of the MOVE organization. Also hear a report on the denial of parole for the MOVE 9 who have been incarcerated 30 years for a crime they did not commit. Additional reports will provide updated information on the imprisonment of BANCO leader Rev. Edward Pinkney from Benton Harbor, the campaign to Free the Cuban Five, and the prison-industrial complex in Michigan.

Event co-sponsored by: Michigan Emergency Committee Against War & Injustice (MECAWI), Detroit Green Party, Detroit Solidarity, Bishop Thomas Gumbleton, Detroit Coalition Against Police Brutality and others.
