Let's keep it that way!

On July 1, 2006, women in South Dakota will no longer have the constitutional right to privacy and reproductive choice. Abortions, even in cases of rape and incest, will be prohibited due to a law signed by Gov. Mike Rounds on March 6. Pro-choice activists recently submitted petition signatures to have the abortion ban law placed on the November ballot to let voters decide. The July 1 enactment date will either be a temporary pro-choice victory with an injunction on the new law until November, or a solemn reminder to women everywhere that choice can be taken away.

Show your solidarity with the women of South Dakota and your resolve that this kind of anti-choice law will never be allowed in Michigan!
